

Workshops 26th May

09:00-10:15: 1st workshop session:

Workshop 1.1: “Mater et magistra – PMTO groups for Somali and Pakistani mothers” (Ragnhild Bjørknes, Research Fellow, Monica Flock, Regional PMTO Coordinator, and Ragnhild Pettersen, Regional PMTO Coordinator, The Norwegian Center for Child Development)

Workshop 1.2: “PMTO Data management: The Matrix” (Jan Ehrhardt, Lead Developer, Kleine Stappen / Tools for Research, Netherlands)

Workshop 1.3: “Booster sessions: Helping families to keep up the effective parenting practices” (Ger Kerkstra, PMTO Fimp Leader, Yorneo, youth care institute, and Gonnie Albrecht, PMTO Program Leader, PI Research, Netherlands)

10:15-10:45: Break

10:45-11:45: 2nd workshop session:

Workshop 2.1: “FIMP (Fidelity of Implementation Rating System) from a clinical perspective” (Elisabeth Askeland, Clinical Director, and Anett Apeland, Assistant Clinical Director, The Norwegian Center for Child Development)

Workshop 2.2: “Building a state-wide PMTO model infrastructure: Putting the pieces together (The Michigan U.S.A. experience)” (Connie Conklin, Director of Programs and Services for Children with Serious Emotional Disturbance, Michigan Department of Community Health, Luann Gray, Michigan PMTO State Coordinator, and Cheryl Greer, Child & Family Therapist, Lincoln Behavioral Services, USA)

Workshop 2.3: “The road was made by walking: Implementing Early Initiatives for Children at Risk (TIBIR) in a Norwegian municipality” (Jorid Bjørkås, Regional PMTO Coordinator, The Norwegian Center for Child Development, and Owe Myklebust, PMTO Coordinator in Haugesund)

11:45-13:45: Poster session and lunch

13:45-15:00: 3rd workshop session:

Workshop 3.1: ”From a traditional institution for children to an ambulant and out-patient treatment for families” (Margunn Fanum Aasen, Section Leader / PMTO therapist, BUPA Barneseksjonen, Vestre Viken HF, Norway)

Workshop 3.2: “Balancing creative delivery of PMTO with sustained fidelity: How do PMTO clinicians let playful energy flow without drifting off course?” (Laura Rains, Director of Implementation and Training, ISII, USA)

Workshop 3.3: “Work engagement of therapists working with parents of children with behavioral problems” (Dr. Ferko Öry, PhD Advisor / Researcher, TNO, Netherlands)

15:00-15:30: Closing